FourEyedPride offers a tight-knit, friendly, helpful community that shares your enthusiasm for 1979-1986 Mustangs, Capris and SVOs. We currently have two ways of interacting with your fellow FourEyed Fans: An active message board and a chat room. Our message board is the best place for technical help, buying and selling cars and parts (those with parts

to sell,

), planning get-togethers with others in your area, and showing off your ride.

Please

familiarize yourself with the before posting.

Certain email/Internet providers may be blocking board emails, which can cause registration problems.

Yahoo email addresses are no longer allowed for registration on our board because of this. Please read

this thread.

Our chat room is for casual conversation and getting to know one another in a real-time chat environment. It is not meant for 'instant tech answers' as the number of members in the chat room and their relative experience/knowledge varies greatly.

Please use the message board for technical inquiries.

The chat room can be accessed via our java applet, or by IRC client.
